'Forever in our hearts'

If Any Little Word of Mine

If any little word of mine
May make a dark life brighter,
If any little song of mine
May make a sad heart lighter,

Refrain:

*God help me speak the helping word,
And sweeten it with singing,
And drop it in some lonely vale,
To set the echoes ringing.*

If any little love of mine
May make a hard life sweeter,
If any little care of mine
May make a friend's the fleeter,

Refrain

If any little lift of mine
May make a toiler bending,
God give me love and care and strength;
We live for Him by lending.

Refrain

Benediction

Dad

Dad was a private person yet his sense of humour and personal qualities endeared him to many people. He was a hard worker and if he said something would be done then you knew it would be done. Dad was also an intensely loyal person and he would instantly come to the defence of any family member or friend if he thought they were being treated unjustly.

He had a great sense of humour and was a never-ending source of wry one-liners. He nicknamed Helen 'Lurch' as a child because she was clumsy and he recently introduced Leonie (aka 'Old Bean') as his 'fiery' daughter.

Dad has always been the quiet support in the background as we have studied, married and raised families. We will really miss him.

Leonie and Helen

Grandy

Grandy was lots of fun to be with. Our memories of him include watching him do the chicken dance, watching 'Hi 5' together when we were younger and having him call our pool pony races like they were a horserace. He used to play 'trolls' with us in the playground in the park – chasing us around the play equipment as soon as we crossed the bridge. Grandy saved his coins and gave them to us in ice cream containers for Christmas and loved watching us count them up.

Grandy and Nana took us to McDonalds and Hungry Jacks many times and we were always happy to go with them. Sadly we were not so keen on the shopping centre visits that included Lowes – we teased him a lot about his fashion sense!

Life just won't be the same without him.
